How We Will Calculate Your Balance: We use a method called “Average Daily Balance (including Current Transactions).”

Loss of Introductory APR: If you are 60 days past due, we may end your introductory APR for Balance Transfers and apply the standard APR for Balance Transfers as stated in the Interest Rates and Interest Charges Table to all existing and new Balance Transfer balances on the Account.

Margins: For Purchases and Balance Transfers, 9.74%, 14.74% or 19.74% will be added to the Index; for Cash Advances, 19.99% will be added to the Index.

Index: The APRs that apply to your Account are subject to change each Billing Cycle with changes to the Index. The Index is the Prime Rate (U.S.) as published in the Money Rates section of The Wall Street Journal. As of 03/01/2015, the Prime Rate was 3.25%.

How the Variable APRs on your Account are Determined: The APRs on your Account will be determined each billing cycle by adding a margin to the Index. Please see your Personal Credit Card Agreement for more information.

Procedures for Opening a New Account (USA Patriot Act): To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, Federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify and record information that identifies each person who opens an account. What this means to you: When you open an account, we will ask for your name, address, date of birth, and other information that will allow us to identify you. We may also ask to see your driver's license or other identifying documents.

Card Eligibility: To be eligible for an Account, you must meet certain minimum income, residency, age, credit quality and other requirements.

Balance Transfers: You may be able to transfer balances from eligible credit card accounts to your TD Bank Credit Card Account. Balance Transfers are subject to a fee based on the amount of the transfer with a minimum fee as indicated in the Fees Table and are subject to your available credit limit. The minimum Balance Transfer amount is $250 (plus the applicable Balance Transfer transaction fee for the Account).

We may limit the number and types of credit card accounts from which we will allow Balance Transfers, and the times, manner, and circumstances in which Balance Transfers may be requested. Balance Transfers may not be payable to yourself or made payable to cash. Balance Transfers may be used to pay off other creditors, but cannot be used to pay off accounts owned by TD Bank or to any bank now or previously affiliated with TD Bank.

Should your balance transfer request be approved, the Balance Transfer transaction fee will be reflected on your first monthly billing statement following the transfer. The amount of the Balance Transfer transaction fee will be added to your minimum monthly payment amount. Each month you must pay at least the full amount of your minimum monthly payment which will include any Balance Transfer transaction fee(s) by the payment due date specified on that statement.

It may take 2 to 4 weeks to process a Balance Transfer request after your account is opened. You must continue paying each of your creditors until the requested Balance Transfer appears on your monthly billing statement sent to you by your creditor as a credit. Your other credit card account(s) will not be closed even if you transfer your entire balance(s). If you want to close an account, please contact your other creditors directly.

Transfers requested with Convenience Checks are processed as Cash Advances, not as Balance Transfers. If you have a dispute with a creditor and pay that creditor with a Balance Transfer or Convenience Check, you may lose certain dispute rights with that creditor.

Cash Advances: Cash Advances obtained from a financial institution, an automated teller machine, or any other party that agrees to honor the credit card for Cash Advance purposes, and all Convenience Checks (including Convenience Checks used to transfer balances) posted to your account are considered Cash Advances. Cash Advances are subject to a transaction fee (see Fee Table above) and the Cash Advance transaction fee charge will appear on your first monthly billing statement following the Cash Advance, and that applicable Cash Advance transaction fee amount will be added to your minimum payment amount which will be due on the payment due date specified on that statement.

Foreign Transaction Fees: TD Bank will impose a 3% foreign transaction fee on the converted U.S. Dollar amount of the transaction and any transaction made outside the U.S. Account transactions (including Purchases and Cash Advances) made in a foreign currency will be converted to U.S. Dollars by or on behalf of Visa U.S.A. Inc. (or any of its affiliates) using its currency conversion procedures and charges then in effect, as of the date on which the transaction is first posted to the VISA system. Foreign Transactions are subject to a transaction fee (see Fee Table above) and the Foreign Transaction Fee charge will appear on your first monthly billing statement following the foreign transaction, and that applicable Foreign Transaction fee amount will be added to your minimum payment amount which will be due on the payment due date specified on that statement.

How to Avoid Paying Interest on Purchases: We charge interest on Balance Transfers and Cash Advances beginning on the transaction date (see your account disclosure for the applicable APR, including any promotional rates). We charge interest on purchases beginning on the transactions date unless you pay your entire balance, which includes all Purchases, Cash Advances and Balance Transfers by the payment due date each and every month. Please see your Personal Credit Card Agreement for more details.

Credit Reports: You agree that we have a right to obtain a credit report in connection with our review of your application and after we establish an account, to administer the account. You agree that we may report to others our credit experience with you. At your request we will provide the name and address of each consumer-reporting agency from which we obtained a report about you.

Your Telephone Number: When you give us your mobile phone number, we have your permission to contact you at that number about all of your TD Bank accounts. Your consent allows us to use text messaging, artificial or pre-recorded voice messages and automatic dialing technology for informational and account service calls, but not for telemarketing or sales calls. It may include contact from companies working on our behalf to service your accounts. Message and data rates may apply. You may contact us anytime to change these preferences.

Information Sharing: TD Bank's Privacy Policy is available online at http://www.tdbank.com/bank/privacy_and_security.html.

Notice to California Residents: Married applicants may apply for separate accounts.

Notice to Delaware Residents: Service charges not in excess of those permitted by law will be charged on the outstanding balances from month to month.

If your application is approved and credit is extended to you, we may take steps to re-verify any or all of such information from time to time, including by obtaining additional credit bureau reports, for any legitimate purpose in connection with such extension of credit, such as for the purpose of reviewing the account, increasing the credit line on the account, or for collecting on the account. IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT THE TD EASY REWARDS PROGRAM

How do I earn Easy Rewards under the TD Easy Rewards Visa Program?

You will earn one (1) Easy Rewards Point for each one dollar ($1.00) of all Net Purchases made using the Credit Card.

Easy Rewards Points are earned on retail purchases made with the TD Easy Rewards Visa Credit Card ("Credit Card"), less credits, returns, and adjustments ("Net Purchases"). Balance Transfers, Cash Advances, purchases made by or for a business or for a business purpose, purchases of travelers checks, money orders, lottery tickets, gambling chips, wire transfers, foreign currency, purchases or reloading of prepaid cards, or purchases of any other cash equivalents, fees, interest charges, and unauthorized/fraudulent transactions do not earn Easy Rewards Points.

Subject to the limitations noted, during the first six (6) billing cycles after Credit Card account opening ("Easy Rewards Bonus Period"), you will earn a total of five (5) Easy Rewards Bonus Points (which includes one (1) Easy Rewards Point earned on Net Purchases and four (4) Easy Rewards Bonus Points earned) for each one dollar ($1.00) of all Net Eligible Purchases made using the Credit Card. Eligible Purchases are defined as: dining, grocery, gas, cable, phone and utility bill payments made using the Credit Card. Eligible Purchases must be coded by merchants using the merchant category codes for purchases in these categories to qualify for the total of five (5) Easy Rewards Bonus Points. Purchases made at merchants that do not process transactions under these terms or that use incorrect merchant category codes will not qualify for and you will not receive the five (5) Easy Rewards Bonus Points. Any purchase that is processed using an incorrect merchant category code will earn the one (1) Easy Rewards Point. Purchases not eligible to receive the five (5) Easy Reward Bonus Points, include, but are not limited to, purchases made at superstores, warehouse clubs, discount stores and their affiliates. These types of purchases will only earn the one (1) Easy Rewards Point per one dollar ($1.00) under the TD Easy Rewards Program.

You earn unlimited one (1) Easy Rewards Points for Net Purchases, subject to the credit limit. You may earn up to a total of 7,500 Easy Rewards Bonus Points each billing cycle during the Easy Rewards Bonus Period, based on up to a total of $1,500 in combined Net Eligible Purchases across the Eligible Purchases categories. No more than a maximum of 45,000 Easy Rewards Bonus Points may be earned during the Easy Rewards Bonus Period, equal to a maximum cash back redemption value of $450.

What event can cause the Easy Rewards Bonus Period to end early?

Missing two consecutive minimum monthly payments causes early termination of the Easy Rewards Bonus Period. Upon expiration or termination of the Easy Rewards Bonus Period, you will earn one (1) Easy Rewards Point on all Net Purchases charged to the Credit Card Account.

When do Easy Rewards Points post to my Account?

Easy Rewards Points are posted to your Account each billing cycle based on Net Purchases that post to your Account within that billing cycle. Any returned items will be deducted from the Points earned.

How can I redeem my Easy Rewards Points?

Easy Rewards Points may be redeemed upon request of the primary account holder at specified levels for a variety of merchandise, cash back, gift cards, and travel rewards found at tdbank.com/rewards. Specific merchandise, gift cards, and travel rewards are subject to availability, and include only those participating partners found at tdbank.com/rewards. You will also forfeit any unredeemed/accumulated Points if you cancel your Easy Rewards participation or if Easy Rewards is terminated. We may, at our sole discretion, cancel, modify, restrict, or terminate Easy Rewards or any aspects or features of Easy Rewards at any time without prior notice. All interpretations of Easy Rewards terms and conditions shall be at our sole discretion. In the event of any fraudulent, abusive, or gaming activity related to Easy Rewards, as determined by us in our discretion, we reserve the right to make adjustments to your Easy Rewards Point accruals, and/or to cancel your participation in Easy Rewards, and/or close your Account at any time. Easy Rewards Points have no cash value except when redeemed in connection with the TD Easy Rewards Program, and may not be used in place of payment of any portion of a required Minimum Monthly Payment or any other required payment on a credit card or other account owed to TD Bank. Easy Rewards Points may not be transferred or assigned.
